Since we are Cavaliers, we may wish that we were the Cavaliers who served the tyrannical Charles I in the 1640's. Though we do not serve a tyrant, we do have to obey laws and rules. If a defender of Charles I disobeyed the law, he was beheaded and his head was displayed on a bridge in London. This is ironic since Charles I paid his death penalty with the guillotine. We, too, have to pay a penalty if we break the law or disobey a school rule. Though the punishment seems severe at the time, it is not comparable to Madame guillotine.

A Cavalier was supposed to be a horseman and a man of good birth. His characterization was French-oriented and based on the idea of chivalry and the ideal knight. The supporters of Charles I were by no means ideal knights. They feigned religion, as did Charles I, and performed horrible atrocities against women.

Only beauty queens and royal people were important

Christmas Dance — First for F-C

Her? (Kathy Perkins, Queen)

Attempting to change a long and established tradition, F-C cheerleaders decided to replace the Homecoming Dance with a more elaborate Christmas Ball. The semi-formal Christmas Ball was held on December 14, from 8-12, at the Collinsville Recreation Center. Tickets were sold only in advance to F-C students and alumni. The band, "Bijou", brought some new sounds from Richmond. Heidi Gravely, Sarah Snead, Faye Wooten, Rita Janney, Kay Carmichael, LaDonna Tuttle, Pam Martin, and Kathy Perkins were chosen by the Senior class to run for Christmas Queen. As the highlight of the evening, Kathy Perkins was voted by those attending the dance to be Christmas Queen. Hopefully, the Christmas Ball will also become a long and established tradition at Fieldale-Collinsville.

"Adrift in New York" the Junior class play was a satiric melodrama set in the 1890's.

The play depicts the efforts of Francis Desmond, a sophisticated villain, to own the Weston family farm. Believing oil to be on the land, Desmond has murdered a wealthy neighbor and purchased the mortgage, which he will return to Weston if Nellie, the elder daughter will marry him. Nellie agrees, against her father's wishes; but upon arriving in New York, she learns of Desmond's true nature. Jack Merrivell, a childhood sweetheart, saves her from Desmond's clutches. The final act resolves the conflict by reuniting Nellie with her family and with Jack. Desmond is undone by an undercover detective who has passed as his cohort.

Pam Thomas — 1975 Jr. Miss

On November 23, 1974, Miss Pam Thomas was crowned Henry County's Junior Miss for 1975 from a field of twelve area senior girls. For her talent presentation, Miss Thomas played a Russian Gypsy melody, "Dark Eyes", arranged by Rob Roy Peery on the piano. In addition to her title, Pam was presented the Scholastic Achievement Award because of her 4.0 average. Near the end of January, Pam travelled to Roanoke for state competition.

At the semi-annual Beta Tapping Assembly in October, 35 outstanding people were chosen as initiates. This year initiation was a take-off on "My Favorite Martian." The initiates dressed in white and green and carried buckets of "moon dust" and Tang. A party was held in honor of all initiates to reward their efforts.

In addition to Initiation, the Beta Club annually sponsors a visit to the Martinsville Convalescent Home, a Talent Show, and a trip to Beta Convention for all members.

The Future Homemakers of America are comprised of girls presently or previously enrolled in a Home Economics class. This year their President is Teresa Lawless. Under the leadership of Teresa and their sponsor, the FHA engages in many activities throughout the year. At Christmas, they sponsor a party at a member's home, they send a fruit basket to the Kennedy House, and go Christmas Caroling at the Martinsville — Henry County Hospital. The new members were initiated by dressing as housewives. In the spring of the year, they hold their annual Mother-Daughter Banquet with all mothers and sponsors receiving a red rose.

The FTA, as well as other clubs, was functional in name only this year. Disorganization and student disinterest halted the usual projects of the FTA. Perhaps next year will be a more rewarding and profitable year for the FTA.

French Club Highlights — Fashion Show, Mardi Gras

This year has been very successful for the French Club. The officers and Miss Robertson were busy all year planning a French Fashion Show, the annual Mardi Gras, a French dinner and many interesting meetings. The activities were informative, and most of all fun. Old and new members alike really enjoyed the year making it one of the best ever.

Miss Loftis, Spanish Club sponsor, is pleased with members' work

Students who are studying Spanish are eligible to join the Spanish Club. The Spanish Club presents various programs designed to help the student understand the people who speak Spanish. The Club sponsors a Christmas program complete with a pinata from Mexico. The members hear speakers who have lived or traveled in Spanish speaking countries. At the Spanish Club fiesta the members themselves prepare foods from authentic Spanish recipes.

The GAA is interested in promoting and supporting girls' athletics. Whenever possible, the GAA holds afternoon relaxation periods. At these sessions, the girls participate in various activities including basketball and volleyball. Each year, GAA members are chosen to represent FCHS in basketball and volleyball. These teams compete with other schools in the Piedmont District. Also, a Gymnastics Assembly and a Womanless Beauty Pageant, are held each year to financially support the club.

James Harmon — Senior Super Star

At the Spring Sports Banquet, James Harmon was honored with the Most Outstanding Athlete Award. This was well deserved since James holds monograms in football, basketball, and track. Harmon also has two district track records: shotput 45' 2"; discus 131 5".

Girls' Track

The newest addition to the F-C sports program is the Girls' Track Team. The new dimension is open to all and great enthusiasm has been shown. Patricia Joyce placed 1st in 100-yard dash and Cordia Staples placed 2nd in shotput at the first Piedmont District meet. Harriet Staples and Susan Martin were co-captains of the team.

Women in the 1640's had no identity whatsoever. This was a carryover from Anglo-Saxon and Norman rule in England. If you were not born into a royal family, you were never noticed except to placate men's pleasures. Of course, things are different now for some women, as all Women Liberationists will tell you

Though the Cavaliers and Charles I were radical in thought and actions, they meant well. Some of us are radical, but we soon find, like Charles I, that peaceful and parliamentary rule overtake fanaticism.

Oliver Cromwell restored law and order to a country that was confused, misled, and afflicted. We, who are Cavaliers, have to pay a price for immature, fanatic thoughts. We have to mature and meet the goals we set for ourselves

So, make a wish:
Have a ball
Dream a dream:
Be it all

If you want it,
You can get it
But to get it,
You got to want it
Anything you want to try,
Just let go:
Fly high

And, make a wish

Life — so they say
Is but a game and they let it slip away
Love — like the Autumn sun
Should be dying but it's only just begun
Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see just where we're goin'
And all the secrets in the universe
Whisper in our ears and all the years
Will come and go
And take us up — always up

We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again

Dreams — so they say
Are for the fools and they let them drift away
Peace — like the silent dove
Should be flyin' but its only just begun
Like Columbus in the olden days
We must gather all our courage
Sail our ships out on the open seas
Cast away our fears and all the years
Will come and go
And take us up — always up

We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again

So I wanna laugh while the laughin' is easy
I wanna cry if it makes it worthwhile
I may never pass this way again
That's why I want it with you
'Cause you make me feel like I'm more than
A friend
Like I'm the journey and you're the journey's end
I may never pass this way again
That's why I want it with you

We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again

Come to see me alot
this summer and be good.
Just think next year is our last year. The big day will come when we go out on our own and get married. I hope.
Love always and forever,
Jeresa
